

Mixed-Use Forum

Monday, June 8, 2009

Registration 4:00 PM / Program Begins 4:30 PM
Networking Cocktails & Hors d'oeuvres 6:00 PM
Sheraton Lincoln Harbor, Weehawken, NJ

Chapter Meeting Monday, June 8, 2009

Join us for a special Chapter Meeting: we begin at 4:30 with a program on Mixed-Use development. Two panels will discuss two exciting projects: the Morristown Epstein Department store redevelopment project and the Hoboken Ferry terminal redevelopment project. Learn about the challenges and opportunities facing these mixed-use projects, and the incentives and assistance programs utilized.

Case Study 1: Morristown -- Moderator: Stephen Santola, Woodmont Properties
Panelists: Robert Goldsmith, Greenbaum Rowe Smith & Davis
Chuck Thomas, Omland Engineering
Tom Barton, Barton Partners

Case Study 2: Hoboken -- Moderator: Anthony Marchetta, LCOR
Panelists: Kevin Moore, Sills Cummis & Gross PC
Ian Sacs, Langan Engineering and Environmental Services
Kristopher Takacs, Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP

Immediately after the program, join us for a networking reception with cocktails, hors d'oeuvres and a breathtaking Manhattan view. Space is limited, so please register early to avoid disappointment.

Additional sponsorships are available. Please contact Bonnie Sovinee at 732-729-9900.

Thanks to our sponsors:

June 8 Chapter Meeting: AIA Members: $115 per person

Name: _____ Member ID# _____

Company: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

Pay by Credit Card ~ American Express, MasterCard or Visa Only

Card# _____ Exp. _____ Amt. to be Charged: $ _____

Cardholder: _____ Signature: _____

Address: _____

City/State/Zip: _____

Mail form with payment to: NJ-NAIOP 317 George St., Suite 220, New Brunswick, NJ 08901 or Fax to 732-729-9901
If payment has not been received by event date, a credit card guarantee will be required onsite. No credit card charges will be processed if payment is received within 7 days of the event. Registrations cancelled fewer than 72 hours in advance of the event will be considered firm with payment due to NAIOP-NJ within 30 days.
No refunds will be issued for paid registrations after the 72 hour cancellation deadline.